We are seeking to fill a Special Projects Internship position for the premier art gallery on the east-side. We need outgoing, aggressive, creative individuals who can effectively communicate our mission to a variety of people. Our mission as a contemporary gallery is to revitalize and reshape the art imagination on the east-side. We are ushering in a movement of Modern, Abstract and Conceptual Art views from both known and emerging artists.

Knowledge of art or the art world not required, however, a strong interest to learn is.

Internship Position open:
- Special Projects Intern

We are looking for a person to aid in the development and implementation of Special Projects outside of the gallery. These projects include but are not limited to:
- Art in Action at the Woodmark Hotel
- Washington Arts Museum (WAM), opening summer 2015
- NW to SE a conceptual view of Landscapes exhibition, China fall 2014
- Kirkland Fish Frolic, Summer 2014

The benefits to the intern are exciting and important. They include working with a great team of art enthusiasts who care deeply about displaying quality work, learning the ins and outs of gallery management, working with local artists in helping to produce the best art events this area has to offer. In return the intern should bring essential skills to this position: excellent communication skills, attention to detail, the ability to work independently on important projects, and most importantly, a strong interest in the arts, marketing and PR.

What you will learn:
- Gallery Management
- Producing art events
- Marketing and PR
- International Communication
- Community relationship building
- Non Profit Fundraising
- Ins and Outs of building a local business

Compensation:
This is an unpaid internship. We are looking for someone who loves art and wants to boost their Marketing/PR and Communications resume having been an integral part of building a gallery.
