

Teaching in China

Teaching in another country allows a person to experience the world and have a life changing experience. Schools in China need qualified teachers who want to come teach English to their students. All participating schools are interviewed and screened to ensure a positive experience.

Interested applicants should submit a resume and photo to rumbaugh@fcalions.org. Applications are being processed year-round.

Employment Qualifications

- Bachelor's Degree in Education
- State Certification preferred
- Previous teaching experience desired but not required
- ESL Certification a plus

Compensation*

$1,500 - $2,000 USD for one month

*Depending on years of experience and duties/responsibility of the teacher

Hosting School Provides

- Living accommodations
- Health Insurance
- Round Trip Airfare once a year (for a one year commitment)

Teaching Expectations

- Teaching classes 2-3 hours per day, not to exceed 5 hours per day
- Teacher(s) have days off each week and time for travel.
(No teaching or other responsibilities even if on campus)
- Organize special activities that promote the use of English