As a student, what is my responsibly regarding communication and obtaining vital information?

Students are expected to frequently check their campus mailboxes and their NU email account. Housing and Residence Life related information, deadlines, and procedures are primarily communicated through a students’ NU email.