What is MyHousing?

MyHousing is Northwest University’s Housing tool for online applications, roommate and room selection, and placement information. Students may log on anytime to review their specific housing information.