

Access to Campus

Northwest University is a Washington non-profit corporation under state law and as such, property owned by the University is "private property." All persons who enter onto property owned or leased by Northwest University should be able to demonstrate a legitimate and approved purpose to be present on campus. When practical, university students and employees should accompany their guests or visitors while on campus. Persons not having a legitimate or approved purpose to be on campus or whose behavior is inappropriate may be asked to leave by Campus Security personnel. Persons refusing to leave will be considered trespassing by the Kirkland Police Department.
