

Health Insurance

The University recommends that all students carry a health insurance policy. A health insurance policy is required to participate in University sponsored recreations sports activities. International students are required to demonstrate proof of health insurance upon enrollment at Northwest University.