

Room Reservations

Northwest University facilities are available for reservation by emailing the Director of Community Life in the Student Development office. Students may reserve rooms for clubs and organizations, group projects, or other meetings in accordance with university guidelines. Some facilities require special permission from administering departments