

Storage

Students who are interested in the limited storage space available may contact the Student Development office located in the Pecota Student Center for further information. Students' personal property stored in the storage facility is not covered by University insurance. The University is not responsible to insure against the loss of, or damage to, personal equipment and effects of the students.