International Study Tours
Another option for off-campus study experience is travel facilitated through Academic Majors. These travel experiences are typically credit-bearing courses, no credit transfer is needed.

  • Biblical Literature (BIBLE 3003 Flying Seminar, BIBL 3893 Biblical Lands Experience)
  • Business (BUSM 4123 International Business)
  • Communications (COMM 3843 Anthropology of Northwest Native Peoples, COMM 3863 Native Peoples of Hawai’i)
  • Environmental Science (SCIE 4432 Scientific Cross-Cultural Experiences)
  • Nursing (NURS 4963 Nursing Practice as Ministry)
  • Psychology (PSYC 4973 International Field Study)

Each of these programs have an international/intercultural tour that is required for students within the Major. Students who are Minoring in the field are also invited to enroll, however, students in the Major are prioritized in the case of class size restrictions.
