Teach English in China
to High School Students

Seeking energetic teachers of English for high school students in southern China. Applicants with an MEd. MIT, or MA TESOL preferred, but BA or MA in related subjects will be considered with TESL Certificate or TESL volunteer experience. Single or Married students may apply.

Position Details:
Teachers will instruct 3-4 classes a day and become involved with cultural and sports clubs. Teachers will be assigned in teaching ‘teams’ to schools where CELE has a well-established partnership. You will gain valuable international perspective, teaching experience, and cultural immersion!

Education degree or TESL Certificate required. (http://www.oxfordseminars.com/)

APPLICATION DETAILS:

Application Due—March 25th
Interviews—April 1-15

Application Packet:
- Cover Letter
- Resume
- 2 Letters of Recommendation
- Transcript, unofficial OK
- Minimum BA (completed by June 2015) from an Accredited University
- TESOL certificate (if not MATESOL/MIT, ESL endorsement) by Aug 2015
- Photocopy of Passport

Send completed applications to:
Center for English Language Education (CELE)
Kristen Ross: Hurst 104
E-mail PDF to: cele@northwestu.edu

Questions?
autumn.witt@northwestu.edu

Compensation & Benefits Package:
- Roundtrip Airfare
- $1500-2500 USD/month salary DOE.
- On-campus Room & Board: Teachers are given personal apartments. Meals are provided in the school cafeteria or can be purchased extremely affordable in the community.
- Local Medical Expenses
- Visa Assistance and Expenses
- Time off given for Chinese holidays
- Pre-departure orientation and on-going support by staff from partner school & the Center for English Language Education at NU.

10-Month Contract
- September-January: Fall Semester
- February-June: Spring Semester