

NPP Degree Programs

Certificate (30 credits)

Certificate in Ministry Leadership (CML)*

This degree is designed to address the challenge of continuing education in today's fast-paced, ever-changing world, preparing students for volunteer and vocational ministry. Combining theology and practice, this online ministry certificate is offered in an innovative, Bible-centered environment. Completion of the program meets the educational requirements for ministry certification, ministry license, and ordination credential levels with the Assemblies of God.

Types of Courses

- Old & New Testament
- Biblical Interpretation
- Pentecostal Spirituality
- Christian Thought
- Effective Preaching
- Theology of Ministry Essentials

*This program is not eligible to receive federal financial aid.

60 Credit Programs (approx. 2 years)

Associate of Arts (AA)

The Associate in Arts degree makes it possible to build your education on a solid foundation. It's a fully accredited, two-year degree program that satisfies the general education requirements for most bachelor's degrees. Even if you have little or no previous college experience, you can earn an Associate in Arts degree and then take the next step towards your bachelor's. It's a great start to a new beginning.

Types of Courses

- General Psychology
- Science & Lab
- American Literature
- Interpersonal Communication
- Composition I & II
- Math

Associate in Ministry Leadership (AML)

The Associate Degree in Ministry Leadership is designed for those who seek a broader foundation upon which to build their ministry by combining selected general education courses with Bible, theology, and ministry studies. After completion of this degree students have completed the necessary academic requirements to be credentialed with the Assemblies of God.

Types of Courses

- Old & New Testament
- Biblical Interpretation

- Pentecostal Spirituality
- Christian Thought
- Effective Preaching
- Theology of Ministry Essentials

Bachelor of Arts Programs (approx. 4 years)

BA in Business Management

Provides students with the skills necessary to pursue and develop effective business practices. This major equips students with a variety of foundational skills in accounting, finance, project management and marketing. Additionally, students will learn to pursue ethical and effective ways of conducting business in managerial and leadership roles.

Types of Courses

- Business Ethics
- Managerial Marketing
- Business Leadership
- Negotiations
- Managerial Finance
- Project Management
- Accounting for Managers

What are graduates of this program doing?

- Start their own businesses
- Management roles at Microsoft and Amazon
- Project Managers
- Operations
- Marketing

BA in Organizational Management

Designed to prepare students for leadership positions in business, government, and nonprofit organizations. This program emphasizes the development of leadership and management skills with the goal of assisting students who seek advancement in their current field or transition into leadership positions. Career possibilities include Human Resource Management, Nonprofit Leadership, and various positions in government and business organizations that focus on the management of people and projects.

Types of Courses

- Business Ethics
- Managerial Marketing
- Management of Non-profits
- Conflict Resolution
- Managerial Finance
- HR Management
- Organization & Management Theory

What are graduates of this program doing?

- Government agencies
- Church leaders
- HR managers
- Business Operations
- Non-profit management

BA in Organizational Leadership

The Bachelor of Arts in Organizational Leadership is a degree focusing on developing the personal characteristics and professional competencies needed for success and career advancement within your chosen vocation and/or place of employment. Organizational Leadership draws from a cross-section of disciplines with the common focus of practical application in today's highly mobile and demanding workforce. Built upon a leadership core that is applicable to leading across a broad range of settings, you then coordinate with your advisor to design your academic program based on your chosen leadership path.

Types of Courses

- Business Ethics
- Conflict Resolution
- Foundations of Leadership
- Project Management
- Organization & Management Theory
- Leading Effective Teams

What are graduates of this program doing?

- Project Coordinator
- Church leaders
- HR managers
- Management analysts
- Government agencies
- Marketing
- Healthcare services

BA in Interdisciplinary Studies

The Bachelor of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies is an individually designed major containing primary and secondary study areas of your choice. Under the guidance of an academic advisor, you design a degree specific to your own needs and goals. The broader scope of this undergraduate degree may provide a quicker path to graduation if you have previous college credits that don't apply to other degree programs. It can also act as a stepping stone to a master's program. An accredited degree with better transfer options and greater flexibility—it's a combination that is hard to beat.

NU Concentration Options

Psychology

Ministry Leadership

Business Management

Organizational Management

What are graduates of this program doing?

- Pursuing a Master's degree
- Hospital administration
- Own their own business
- Received a promotion at work after earning a BA

BA in Ministry Leadership

With our Bachelor of Arts in Ministry Leadership Degree, you can heed your calling to the specific type of ministry that you feel called to. Though there are differences between serving in church leadership and ministering in non-church settings, they both take a person with commitment, integrity, and heart. They also require specialized training, and that's where Northwest University can help.

This degree is designed for students who desire the broadest foundation upon which to build their ministry and who would like the option of advancing into a master's degree. Our program is holistic and engaging, with an emphasis on a thorough core curriculum requirement coupled with two years of Bible, theology, and practical ministry courses.

Types of Courses

- Ministry Life & Calling
- Effective Preaching
- Ministry Leadership
- Biblical Interpretation
- Systematic Theology
- Pastoral Care & Counseling

What are graduates of this program doing?

- Fulfills the academic requirements of credentialing with the Assemblies of God
- Pastor
- Church Leader
- Missionary
- Pursuing Master's degrees
- Youth Leaders

BA in Psychology

The Bachelor of Arts in Psychology Degree is designed to enhance students' understanding of the human condition in light of a distinctive Christian worldview. Our theoretical framework synthesizes broad-based knowledge drawn from the fields of psychology, anthropology, sociology, and cultural studies to provide a sound foundation in social sciences. Students are challenged and equipped to become agents of change, accepting the responsibility to truly make a difference in the lives of hurting individuals within a global context.

Types of Courses

- Theories & Processes of Counseling
- Marriage & Family
- Lifespan Psychology
- Research Methods

- Community Psychology
- Neuropsychology
- Abnormal Psychology

What are graduates of this program doing?

- Child advocacy
- Case workers
- Pursuing a Master's degree in counseling
- Working with non-profit organizations
- Social worker