Residence Hall Expectations:

1. Please be respectful of both NU property, and of NU students, staff and faculty. You will be held liable for any property damage that you may cause during your stay. Using offensive language is not acceptable on Northwest University's Campus.
2. Remember that your residence halls host has been assigned to you as a liaison between you and the campus; your host must have a way of getting in touch with you for emergency purposes. You are expected to stay overnight with your host
3. You must remain on campus during your visit. Leaving campus for any period of time during your stay is prohibited
4. Alcohol, drugs of any kind, weapons and promiscuity are prohibited on the Northwest University campus. If you engage in any of these activities, you will be asked to leave campus.

1. Identification of Risks

I understand that my student is going to live/visit in a dormitory setting with diverse people. I understand that the University experience is a challenging one that can result in emotional anxiety and stressors, interpersonal conflicts and homesickness. While the Residence Life staff is responsible to maintain a supportive, Christ-affirming atmosphere, I understand that it is my student's responsibility to attempt to handle roommate conflicts in a positive manner, to follow the Lifestyle Standards Covenant, and to adhere to all guidelines in the Community Handbook. Further, it is my student's responsibility to seek help in resolving issues when necessary, and to notify their RA and/or RD when they are experiencing emotional, social and/or physical stressors.

2. Activities

I understand that the University experience often includes recreational activities, programs, games and events that may involve inherent risks of participation. I understand that my student may elect to participate in a wide variety of both ASB-sponsored and non-sponsored events. I agree that it is up to my student to use wise judgment and common sense when participating in any activity. I understand that my student is responsible for his/her own safety and will act accordingly.

3. Waiver and Release

I hereby waive, release and discharge any and all claims against the University, and its trustees, officers, agents and employees from any and all liability, damage, expense and/or claim of any nature while my student resides on the premises of Northwest University and participates in voluntary activities. More specifically, I hereby hold Northwest University or any individual acting in an official or advisory capacity for Northwest University, harmless and release Northwest University and its agents from any liability and claims arising out of an accident or stressful incident, except where caused by the gross negligence or wanton misconduct of any of the released parties. I intend this waiver and release to also apply to any relatives, heirs, next of kin, personal representatives, or assigns that might pursue legal action on my behalf.

4. Insurance

I currently have and agree to maintain throughout my student’s participation, valid and sufficient medical and accident insurance. I understand that this is my sole responsibility, and release all persons and entities from providing coverage for my student.

I, _____, have read and agreed to the above expectations during my stay on the Northwest University Campus.
