QUESTIONS?

GRADUATE STUDENT HOUSING OPTIONS

OPTION 1

Graduate Housing in Building C (Cost: $3675)

- Live with other single graduates only
- No meal plan required (can opt-in as desired)
- Can provide roommate requests and we will do our best to honor those. You will not go through the Housing Selection Night process.
- MIT students: provided the extended stay without having to follow the summer housing process, will just stay in their current spot (cost is half summer rent)

OPTION 2

Mixed Housing with Undergraduates in Student Apartments (Cost: $4450)

- Students can room with traditional undergraduate students and participate in the Housing Selection Night process at a “senior” level for points
- Placement is NOT guaranteed (ie: if you do not make it based on point level, you do not get in).
- Required to have a meal plan.
- Would follow summer housing processes for an extended stay which would include movement between apartments and residence halls on very specific dates (cost is half summer rent). Summer housing is not guaranteed; however, we don’t anticipate an issue for summer 2025.
