

Dancing

The University does not sponsor or permit events centered on social dancing. Dramatic, musical, and/or cultural dancing performances are subject to prior approval by the respective academic or Student Development department. Questions about appropriate entertainment, performances, and/or use of facilities can be directed to the Student Development Office.